Surfing and snorkeling facilities are available and even deep sea fishing trips can be enjoyed.

One of the main attractions is the Madu River safari. Madu River, which flows across Balapitiya, boasts of having many small islands most of which are uninhabited and covered with mangroves. The new hub of 'cool' and creative activity in Sri Lanka, the Southern capital of Galle is enjoying a great comeback. Galle and its outskirts have now become a favored hotspot for travellers looking for an all-round holiday. The main attraction of Galle is the 17C Dutch

Fort, a UNESCO protected World Heritage site. Historically, Galle was a location of paramount importance due to its strategic location on the South coast as well as its natural harbor.
